CECI International Student Scholarship

Approved by Departmental Affairs Council on June 25, 2018

1. CECI Engineering Consultants (CECI) in an effort to raise internationalization in industry, promote academic diplomacy, and encourage outstanding students to pursue academic degrees in Taiwan, has contributed an international student scholarship for graduate students who study in Department of Civil Engineering at National Cheng Kung University.
2. The number of scholarships awarded is subject to adjustment, depending on the total number of international students as well as the funds available for the current academic year.
3. International students shall study in Department of Civil Engineering, and scholarship the award timeframe is for one year. The Scholarship is, in principle, granted to students from Southeast Asia (Malaysia, Indonesia, and Vietnam are the first priorities).
4. Recipients will receive half scholarship in November and April separately. Recipients may have their scholarship terminated in the second semester due to failure to achieve an average score of 70 in the first semester.
5. Application requirements:
 - (1) New Students: Applicants who applied in accordance with the regulations governing “NCKU Guidelines for International Student Admission Applications”, and are required to be officially enrolled as international students.
 - (2) Current students: Eligible applicants who have completed at least their first year of academic study, and are required to be officially enrolled.

6. Application documents:

(1) New students: A completed application form, an official transcript.

- Master's program applicants: Bachelor's degree transcript (or above) by year.
- Ph.D. program applicants: Master's and Bachelor's degree transcripts (or above) by year.

(2) Current students: A completed application form, an official transcript, an official study certificate (obtained from the Registrar Division).

(3) Other reference documents (if applicable)

7. Deadline of Application: October 15 annually

8. Conditions for Receiving a Scholarship:

(1) Approved recipients are required to be officially enrolled and done the ARC verification to receive the granted scholarship every semester.

(2) After being officially enrolled, recipients who are identified as having an employment status on ARC or who hold work visa are not entitled to receive the scholarship.

(3) Recipients who suspend their studies or drop out from school will have their stipend halted immediately and their qualifications for receiving it are cancelled.

(4) Recipients who travel overseas to participate in any student exchange program or any short-term research project will not receive any of the scholarship during their overseas stay. The duration of the original scholarship will not be extended to account for this.

(5) Recipients who have violated University rules will immediately have their scholarship cancelled. Meanwhile, their eligibility to apply for a scholarship will be completely revoked.
